WASHINGTON, Friday, August 24, 1868. THE LAST ORDER OF THE PREEDMEN'S BUREAU. The Copperhead fraternity of this city is in costacies in consequence of the promulgation of the circular from the Freedmen's Bureau, directing the discontinuation of the iasus of rations to refugees and freedmen in the Southern States. They assert that the President ordered it. Such, wever, is not the case, as Major-Gen, Howard's letter to Secretary Stanton, recommending the discontinuation of these Seases, has been given to the public, and shows that the commendable movement originated in the Bureau, and was simply a part of the plan adopted by Gen. Howard for the purpose of reducing its expenditures. It will by seen by the let-ter that this is not a Presidential coup d'état, as the "my-polisy" advocates allege.

PARIS EXPOSITION.

WASHINGT ON.

Much misunderstanding about admissions to the Paris Exposition seems to exist among some of the authorities of the several States. Positively no articles will be entered or received at the Exhibition, except those for which applications shall have been duly filed with and accepted by the General Agant at New-York, J. C. Derby. The Times Building, No. 40 Park Row. All applications, therefore, should be promptly forwarded to him, as he is required to have the descriptive catalogue ready by the 15th of next month. Although the present list of applications promises an excellent exhibition in everal groups, it is deficient in a few important particulars, such as righ furnishings, upholstery, and decorative work, prystals and rich glassware, porcelain and other patterns, parpets, wall papers, cutlery, bronzes, &c., cotton and its products, wool and its products, fleeces of wool, hosiery, &c., plans and models of rural buildings, fortilizing substances, apparatus and instruments for hunting. and for collecting natural products, shawls of wool cereals, wines, and fermented drinks. A model district school-house, with all its appliances, would be a very desirable institution to send; also, an American restaurant. Additional specimens of the cres of all the metals, exhibiting more fully their richness and the various localities of their production each opportunity as this has ever yet occurred, nor will it occur again probably for many years to come. Congress has provided free transportation to Paris for goods and show cases in which to exhibit them, as well as competent officers and guards to take care of them

A BARE INSTANCE OF ECONOMY.

Commissioner Cooley, of the Indian Bureau, has Istablished a precedent in economy which is worthy of notice. Having been authorized to use an appropriation of $54,000 to treat with certain refractory Indians, he, in company with a special commission last August, visited these tribes, remain. ing with them over two month, and after entertaining the re-presentatives of 75,000 Indians, and expending $3,000 in pres ents, and ratifying a treaty, only expended $10,000 for this object. This is the first instance of this character on record at the Indian Bureau.

UNIONISTS OF ALABAMA.

Capt. D. H. Bingham of this city has just received *latter from a loval Union citizen of Tuscaloosa, Ala., from which I am allowed to take the following extracts: The writer states that upon the success of the Union Republican party this Fall depends the fate of the loyal Unionists of the outh. That since the Rebel riots in New-Orleans the Union men in his neighborhood have become very timid. He save that, socially ostracised and politically proscribed, they scarcely seem the men who, during the Robellion, stood up In the community as to do them reverence, save ing of Union citizens of Tuscaloosa, to elect delegates to the Philadelphia Southern Union Convention, was called, but the ssacres at New-Orleans made the people afraid to attend-Secret meetings of the Union Leagues, however, have been held, and delegates chosen. He further says that: " We are patiently awaiting the issue of the conflict now going on in the loyal States, and praying for the success of that pe the old flag so triumphantly through the strife. If they fail we will then have to take up our beds and walk."

THE AGRICULTURAL PROSPECTS IN CALIFORNIA. The Commissioner of Agriculture to-day received an interesting report concerning agricultural interests in Californin; and with it several specimens of California wheat and rye, which are much superior to Northern varieties. It is his intention to use them in the experimental gardens. THE COPPERHEAD ATTACKS UPON ASSISTANT SECRE-TARY CHANDLES.

The Herald in adhering lo its base calumniation of Assistant Secretary Chandler has excited the contempt of all right minded men here. Before he entered the Government pervice, Mr. Chandler was a prominent Republican of New-Hampshire, and although the youngest member of the State Legislature, was elected Speaker of the Lower House. Since his connection with the Treasury Department, he has been ab. Northed in his official duties to the exclusion of everything else, and to the injury of his health. His character is as pure as it rould possibly be and he is esteemed no less by the President Shan by the Radical members of Congress. The Revaid falsely pays that there is a notoriouly corrupt coiton ring in the Treasas charged or suspected, even remotely, of connection with this or any other ring. As for his wishing to remain in office as a source of profit, it suffices to say that his legal tolent artuid insure him a practice immediately lucrative either here or in his native State. WENDELL PHILLIPS FOR CONGRESS. From Our Special Correspondent.

Boston, Thursday, Aug. 23, 186 I am happy to inform you that we are in have a real meeting of Massachusetts South Carolina. A serious movement foot to nominate Wendell Phillips for Conplace of Mr. Rice, a retiring member. It South Carolina. A serious movement is on foot to nominate Wendell Phillips for Congress, in place of Mr. Rice, a retiring member. It is well known that Mr. Phillips is averse to entering Congress, he would prefer to see the young men, whom he had eshecated, go there to represent his ideas: but now that the Constitution presents note of the obnoxious features which once prevented him from severing allegiance to it, he can have no conscientious scraples against accepting a nomination. The matter has been narrowed down to a mere question of expediency. It is understood that he believes that he could not be elected, and that he would not on any account consent to enlarger the Republican cause in his district. But the young men are beginning to get tired of permitting the two gods of Massachusetts—Culture and Freezitchility—to dictate in our politics any longer. They believe that they can elect him, and refuse to accept Mr. Phillips is refusal to be a candidate.

The working men who favor the Eight-Hour movement, have long south to obtain Mr. Phillips's consent to be their candidate, but he absances given the least encouragement to an independent movement. At the same time he has never declared that he would object to accept a regime nomination from the Republican party. There is no one in Massachusetts who is more enthusiastically admired by the young men who represent the friture polities of our State. Not that his ideas are accepted as oracular uttermaces, nor his policy invariably approved, but because they sympathize very heartily with his apirit, and haves loving reverence for the man himself. They recognize the right of such a pan to make creed susteed of simply expound-sorbe I in his official duties to the exclusion of everything else, and to the injury of his health. His character is a parce at the rould possibly be and he is esteemed he less by the President. That has by the Radical members of Congress. The Healt falsely bys that there is a notoriouly corrupt colton ring in the Treasnity, and more takes than all is its statement that Mr. Chandler into our congress the great feature which emobiles the larty and more takes than all is its statement that Mr. Chandler is charged or suspected, even remotely, of connection with this or any other ring. As for his wishing to remain in office as a source of profit, it suffices to say that his legal talent studies less than the should resign at all it will be to go in his native State. If he should resign at all it will be an unwelcome event to every one who wishes to see an honest and onpable man in charge of public affairs.

The delegates were empowered to appoint their own substitutes in case any of them should be personally mable to attend the Convention.

The further proceedings of the committee were not of a public nature, and cannot be reported. The best of feeling prevailed throughout, and a most encouraging determination was manifested to spare no efforts or expense which may be necessary to thwart the designs of the Copper-Johnson coalitionists and overthrow their mischievous schemes. Connecticut will not fall into their hands or under their control. The guillotine is about commencing work on our Assessors and Collectors of Laternal Revenue. Marshai R. Blake, Collector of the Seventh District, is headless; and George F. Steinbrenner, Assessor, is held for a few days longer "on probation." George is a strone man with the Germans, and had hetter he left "screetly above." if he will stay quiet. Eviar Ketchum is removed from the Collectorship of the Ninth District, and Homer Franklin, the Assessor, requires his head to be glued on every morning with fresh conservative sticking plaster. Franklin himself is all right, but his son-in-law, Gev R. Pelton, is a furious Radical.

George P. Putnam, Collector of the Eighth District, is removed, and rumor rans that Thomas E. Smith will have his place. This is a bad removal and a worse appointment. Putnam has claims on the respect of all our citizens, frespective of his politics, while Smith is devoid of influence.

Anthony J. Bleecker, Assessor in the Eighth District, is like the grass of the field—to-day flourishing, and to-morrow expecting to be east into the oven.

In the Fourth District there are two Collectors and two Assessors—Collector Sheridan Shook and Collector I. F. Bailey, who is assailed, but has strength enough to stay in—a course which we salvise Secretary McCollech to follow. The two Assessors in this District—S. E. Gilbert and Pierce E. THE MONEY CRISIS IN MONTREAL—THE CAUSE, Specia Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribens.

OTTAWA, Thursday, Aug. 24, 1865.

A money crisis exists in Montreal, as it was reported there to-day that the Bank of Montreal, after a long interview with the Ministers, has consented to accept the Currency act, and that it will assume the whole of the issue of the $8,000,000 authorized by that act; also, that it will further take $1,000,000 in debentures should the needs of the Government require it. This is doubted by some. A communication to Le Paus says that there are 5,000 French Canadians in Chicago. This it gives as a proof of dissatisfaction among the Canadians in Canada East. During the early part of the day, the company assumployed thomselves in dancing and various games. THE DOUGLAS MONUMENT CELEBRA-THE MASONIC FRATERNITY CLAIM THE PRIVILEGE OF

LAYING THE CORNER STONE—PRESIDENT JOHNSON NOT It is quite doubtful as to whether President Johnson will lay the corner stone of the Douglas monument. The Masonie Fraternity to day applied to the General Committee of Arrangements for the privilege of having it done by J. R. rin, Grand Master of the Masonic Order in Illinois. They

During the early part of the day, the company assembled employed themselves in dancing and various games. For the more juvenile portion of the visitors were provided all sorts of anusement, from a five-cent swing to "foin shots for 10 cents." Refreshments were obtainable at very moderate prices, while a plentifol supply of lager, and something a little stronger, were kept on hand. A great many enjoyed the pic-nic in the good old style, and brought their provisions with them, which they apread upon the green lawn and speedily panished.

At about 14 o'clock, Mr. Stephens arrived on the grounds in an open entriage, accompanied by Cols, Kirwin and Burke and Capt, Burns. As the earninge drove up to the hotel-door, there was a rush made from all parts of the Garden, and a hearty cheer was sent up by the assembly for their chosen chief. Besids the above-mentioned, there were quite a larre number of greatlemen strived from Ireland, among them Maj. Moynikas. Capt. J. M. Buckley, of the Cleveland (Ohio). Rangers, who was conspicuously connected with the Limestone Ridge affair, was also present and gave in his adhesion to James Stephens. After Mr. Stephens's arrival, the dancing and amusements generally began in good earnest, and the number oresent had swelled to over 3,000.

Mr. Stephens, who was followed everywhere by an eagor crowd anxious to shake his hand and have a word with him, evinced considerable interest in the pleasures of the day, and appeared to prefer them to making speeches. He first visited the great dancing platform, where a lot of "fair women and brave mon" were indulping in an Irish jig. From thence he went to the other scenes of interest, and acted as ampire in a jumping match, making good humored criticisms upon the efforts of the "boys." After some refreshment, to which the representatives of the press were conteodisty invited, Mr. Stephens at about 41 o'clock, made his appearance on the stage to address the meeting.

Around him were Colos, Burbe, Kirwin, Capt, Burns, Major Moynihan and Capt, Murphy rand Master is the proper person to lay the corner stone, and stage to address the meeting.

Around him were Cols. Burke, Kirwin, Capt. Burns, Major Moynihan and Capt. Murphy, as well as several others.

MR. STEPHENS'S ADDRESS.

Mojnihan and Capt. Marchy, as well as several others.

Mr. Stephens remarked that some time ago when the spirit of adventure ran high in this country, he met a young man who told him that he need not to try to do anything for the good of his country by appealing to the patriotism of the people. Now in spito of the appealing to the patriotism and most generous sectiments of his countrymen [Applause.] He would ever do this, and as sure as there was a God in Heaven the cause would triumph. [Great applause.] He, for one, had fall confidence in the end and in the people. It was because he had that confidence and had such strong faith, that no one could be with him for five minutes without believing he was in carnest. Suffering was the great test of a nation as it was of the individual, and because their race could stand suffering, and was a nobe tace, he had an abiding faith in them. (Gaeers,) He claimed for the Irish people more Republican lights than are to be found in any other country in Europe, and in this rough, and such as the country in Europe, and in this real ways the great real for the Irish people more Republican lights than are to be found in any other country in Europe, and in this real this real triangle of the remarked that the Irish people had found such These Brooklyn Cities played their first game together yesterday on the Capitoline grounds, in the presence of a very select assemblage, quite a number of ladies occupying seats. The match was arranged at short notice, but it proved to be a very pleasant meeting and a well played game in a majority of the innings, though not up to the mark either club had reached this season is previous contests. The umpire followed Mr. Rogers's example, and kept the players structly to the rules, the result being a quick game. The full score below gives all the particulars. are to be found in any other country in Europe, and in this respect, it seems remarkable that the trish people had found such little sympathy from the Americans. The man who did not sympathize with any people struggling for republican principles was a false American, and false to the principles of Washington. Some sympathy had been shown toward the scheme of invading Canada, and very little for the party who would liberate Ireland. If the present movement for Irish independence should fail none in the future could possibly succeed, at if they failed they European would come more to be cipies was a false American, and taise to the principles of Washington. Some sympathy had been shown toward the scheme of invaling Canada, and very little for the party who would liberate freighal. If the present movement for Irish independence should fail none in the future could possibly succeed, and if they failed, then England would come once more to be the most powerful. Or one of the most powerful nations in Europe. Things were not settled in America, and it was not too much to say that there were troubles ahead. And if England had the opportunity she would help to crush out this country, but with Ireland free, the United States had nothing to fear from Great Britain. [Applause.] England dared not engage in war during the existence of the I. R. B. Taat had been proved by her humiliating position in Europe, where her counsels were despised. [Applause.] He met with pleasure tried and trusted men of the I. R. B., and he hoped to meet them on I rish soil before very long. [A Voice. "That's right," and hurraha.] The trials they had suffered were almost over, and the opposing party were almost dad. He wished conciliation, but he was opposed to union with those leaders who led the people to destruction and to shame. He wanted the coperation of the rank and file. Before many weeks, they would have their countrymen in this country banded together. Mr. Stephens then proceeded to refer to the specches of Lord Derty and others confirmatory of the condition of Ireland, and the power of the I. R. B. the did not wish to attack Her Majesty's nerves in her dreams, but he did wish to attack Her Majesty's activers in the field. [Immense cheering.]

Col. Burke then addressed the meeting, and remarked that he had been in Mountloy prison for being an American citizen. The organization in Ireland was not deed. The men were ready to fight, and only waited the necessary aid in money. [Cheers.] They had pleaty of soldiers, and good ones, and were ripe for action. Capit. Collins, L. R. A., just landed from Ireland, reported at these headquarters that the hopes of the Irish people were centered in aid to be got from this side, and that they confidently look for aid by Christians next. He reported affairs as being in a satisfactory condition on the other side, and the hopes of the people as sanguine in the extreme.

THE TURF.

PASHION COURSE. On Thursday evening the entries closed at Florence's for the purses offered at the Fashion Course, Long Island. The attendance was not so large as usual, and the principal race did not fill. The contest between the two celebrated horses George Wilkes and Lady Thorne will undoubtedly attract a large crowd. Cora, Rosamond and Lucy will also abow fast time, and we doubt not one of the above is destined.

Monday. Resolutions will be offered at the meeting tendering show fast time, and we doubt not one of the above to astonish the multitude.

Burnham's b. g. General Sherman, and A. A. Faller's b. g. many Society has not as yet made arrangements to take part in the reception, and it is not probable that it will take action in the matter. No definite action has yet been taken by the Chamber of Commerce. A meeting of citizens was held at the Custom House yet seriedly afternoon to make arrangements for the reception. Among those present were Mayor Hoffman, Collector Smythe, Surveyor Wakeman, Major Gen. Sandford, Superistendent Kennedy A. T. Stewart R. S. Schell, C. K. Garrison, and M. H. Field. Mr. Stewart presided. There was much discussion, but no definite plan was adopted, because of the possibility of a change of programme by the President. A sub-Committee was elected, and a meeting of this sub-Committee appointed.

According to the programme as now arranged the President will leave Washington on the morning of Tuesday next, and will serve in Philadelphia in the afternoon. He will leave Philadelphia at 2 oclock a. m. of Wednesday and arrive in New-York at 12:10 of that day. On Thursday morning he will leave this city, going by steamer to West Point, where he will review the Cadets and partake of a collation. From Woat Point will proceed to Arbany, where he will arrive in the avening. He will have Albany on Friday, via the New-York Central Raildrond and, stopping at various piaces on his route, will arrive in Chicago on the afternoon of Wednesday, the 5th of September, and on the following day will participate in the coremonies attending the inauguration of the monument.

Some of the members of the Cabinet and their families will accompany the President to Chicago. It is also expected that tien. Grant Admiral Farragut, Admiral Raidord, Str. geon Gen. Bearses and Gen. McCulium, with their vives, and other distinguished persons, will accompany the President on his trip.

The return to Washington will be by the way of Indianope. b. m. Amber, F. W. Burnham's b. g. General Sherman, and A. A. Faller's b. g.— This presty race course, and the excellence of the manage-ment, deserve the greatest amount of public patronage.

Union Course.

On Friday evening the Union Course entries closed, several of the races did not fill. The attendance at Florence's, in exceedingly popular place of resort on such occasions, was such smaller than on the previous ovening. The following
